Going to New Orleans

I will be out of the office from September 23rd until October 4th. During that time I will be in New Orleans volunteering with a group called Acupuncture Without Borders treating folks, at no cost, for post Katrina trauma and stress. You can read more about them here: www.acuwithoutborders.org. While I have your ear I would like to ask if you could throw a small donation their way. Acupuncture Without Borders is a fledgling organization and can use all the help it can get, so I'd like to ask if you can send them $10-20, to help offset the cost of supplying, feeding and housing the visiting acupuncturists. You can make donations right at the website: <http://www.acuwithoutborders.org/donations.php>, or if you prefer, you can send to me at my office, and I will take it to them when I go down.

I will be seeing patients on Oct 5th and 6th. While I am gone I want you to know about a few acupuncturists who will be available to see you, read below.

At the north office (Medical Arts Acupuncture, near UT)
Diem Nguyen, L.Ac. 699-0183 / 236-1141. Diem and I went to the same school, and both worked at the White Crane pharmacy for several years. Diem specializes toward an ob/gyn direction, but is also and all around accomplished herbalist and acupuncturist.

South of the river:

Angel Masi, L.Ac. 731-8967. Angel practices shiatsu in a style very similar to mine (actually, I have made an effort to model my treatments off hers!). She is also a practicing martial arts with decades of experience, and has an incredible intuitive understanding of the body. Her office is on South Congress, at White Crane.

Laura Farb, L.Ac., 825-5260, is a recent graduate of AOMA, our Alma Mater, and will be available to treat out of the north clinic. She may have more open times than Diem at this point.

You can still reach me by phone, 825-3305, but it may take up to 24 hours for me to check my voicemail and get back. You can call Zea at 448-0900 and she will be able to schedule appointments for when I am back. Take care, I look forward to seeing you once I'm back in town.
